- Health: The University Health Service portion of the segregated fees supports the clinical medicine, counseling, health education, and public health mission of the student health services.
- Union: This portion of the segregated fees supports the facilities at Memorial Union and Union South and provides a free lecture series of the Wisconsin Union Directorate.
- Bus Pass: Provides a free bus pass for each student on all non-campus Madison Metro Transit System bus routes. Also includes the student contribution to the cost of the on-campus bus routes; daytime routes 80 and 85 and nighttime SAFEbus and SAFECab services.
- Intramural: This portion of the segregated fees provides funding for the programs and facilities operated under the Division of Recreational Sports General Programs budget. Major facilities supported in this budget include the Southeast Recreational Facilities (SERF), Camp Randall Sports Center and the Natatorium.
- GSSF: General Student Services Fund provides support for an array of services for students at UW – Madison. See following for a list of organizations receiving allocations.
- CCTAP: Child Care Tuition Assistance Program portion of the segregated fees provides tuition grants to students with children to pay for child care costs.
- Student Gov't. Activity: The Associated Student of Madison portion of the segregated fees supports the operation of the UW – Madison student government association and other student group funding that is distributed by ASM.
- United Council: This fee supports representation activities by the United Council of Student Governments of UW System institutions. Although strictly not a segregated fee, it is assessed with the segregated fee group but at a flat rate of $2.00 per student without regard to credit load.
- SAC/UHS Building Fee: The SAC/UHS Building Fee supports the debt service for construction of the Student Activities Center and University Health Services facilities at University Square.
