DANCE

DANCE (741) 125 Lathrop Hall (608)262-1691

Enroll at an appropriate skill level. Many dance courses require vigorous exercise that may be hazardous to the health of certain individuals, especially those with cardio-pulmonary disease and those who have not recently engaged in strenuous exercise. Any costs as the result of injury or illness connected with participation in these courses are solely the responsibility of the student. If you have a handicap which you believe requires accommodation, notify instructor prior to participation in any course activity. Attendance at one-half the 3:30-4:30pm Friday Forums is required of all students enrolled in a majors course.

Notes
 During this eight-week geriatric-intensive course, students will receive hands-on clinical care experience with residents of area nursing facilities, under the supervision of a board-certified geriatrician. Students will learn in interprofessional teams with medical students and residents, as well as students from other disciplines within the nursing facility. In addition to the clinical component, students will rotate through various healthcare and community settings in Madison and surrounding rural areas. Faculty members from nursing, medicine, and pharmacy with expertise in geriatrics will provide didactic content to supplement the rich experiential learning. This opportunity is open to Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP) students who have successfully completed the prerequisite of N729. For more information and eligibility, contact Dr. Sarah Endicott, sendicott@wisc.edu.

Rural Community Health Clinical Immersion
68421	3	SEM	001					Guthman,Pamela L

This summer experience is a three-week clinical immersion in northern Wisconsin. Students learn about rural public health systems, the role of a public health nurse, and the wide range of programs and issues present in these remote communities. In addition to the three-week summer program, students complete a 1-credit spring preparatory seminar on rural nursing. Exact program dates are TBD, but tentative dates are May 15 to June 2. Completion of the spring seminar and the summer immersion experience satisfies N419 Community Health Nursing Practicum in the undergraduate nursing curriculum. The program is open to admitted nursing (NUR) undergraduates only. Students must apply for the program. The application deadline is/was December 2, 2016. For more information, visit the School of Nursing StudentNet (<http://academic.son.wisc.edu/studentnet/>).

This summer experience is a three-week clinical immersion in Thailand. Students learn about nursing care for diverse populations in international settings, including topics such as epidemiology, environmental health, health promotion, disease prevention and management, and individual, family, a population-centered care. In addition to the three-week summer program, students complete a 1-credit spring preparatory seminar (PHS 640) provides an introduction to global health topics and an overview of community and public health in Thailand. The tentative summer program dates are May 22 to June 9. Completion of the spring seminar and the summer immersion experience satisfies N419 Community Health Nursing Practicum in the undergraduate nursing curriculum. The program is open to admitted nursing (NUR) undergraduates only. Students must apply for the program. The application deadline is/was December 2, 2016.
